

WILLS WEEK INITIATIVE RAISES $10,000 FOR CALGARY COUNSELLING CENTRE

Resolve Legal Group and the University of Calgary Faculty of Law establish annual joint charity fundraiser.

CALGARY, November 30, 2017 – The first ever innovative Wills Week initiative put on by local Calgary law firm Resolve Legal Group in partnership with the University of Calgary Faculty of Law and other local legal firms has raised $10,000 in support of mental health programs at Calgary Counselling Centre.

The newly created and set to be annual joint charity fundraising event, involved students from the Faculty of Law getting hands-on experience by developing wills for Calgarians at a discounted cost with all proceeds going to support Calgary Counselling Centre. Veterans were also given the opportunity to have a will drafted at no charge. All wills were developed under the supervision of a licensed legal professional.

“Now more than ever, we need to continue the conversation around mental health and educate Calgarians that help is available and that counselling achieves results,” said Dr. Robbie Babins-Wagner, CEO of Calgary Counselling Centre. “These funds will allow the Centre to continue to provide mental health support to our community with no waitlist and without financial barriers to access services.”

For more than five years, Resolve Legal Group has supported Calgary Counselling Centre in countless creative and financial ways. They established an innovative and informative seminar series that assists and educates individuals on how to navigate the family law system while maintaining positive mental well-being, with 100 per cent of the proceeds being donated to support Calgary Counselling Centre and our clients. They consistently volunteer for many of the Center’s events, such as the casino fundraiser, and champion the efforts of our services by referring clients, friends, family members and even employees for mental health support.

“In our family law practice, we see the value that counselling can add for clients going through difficult times,” said Cyndy Morin, Founder of Resolve Legal Group. “The entire team here at Resolve Legal Group is proud to support Calgary Counselling Centre as donors, volunteers and community ambassadors.”

A special cheque presentation took place today at Calgary Counselling Centre in downtown Calgary.
